

CHERUB CARE

A Helping Hand for New Mothers

Bringing your newborn cherub home is one of life's greatest joys and the beginning of a whole new way of life for you and your family. Whether this little cherub is your first or your fifth, changes are afoot. This is the time that as a mother you want to "care and stare", looking at and looking after this precious gift.

The first few weeks are a settling in period for everyone and during this time it's nice to have a little helping hand. With Companion Cherub Care a companion is available to assist with household chores, attend to the needs of siblings, welcome visitors, make cups of tea and cook and shop for the family, allowing you to tend to your caring and staring whilst keeping harmony in your home.

A helping hand from a trusted companion can benefit the whole family and enhance the joy of this magical time.
