

COMPANION OUT OF SCHOOL CARE In Home Child Care

Safe and reliable childcare is at the forefront of the minds of most working parents and at Companion Home Care we understand there's no place like home, especially when it comes to caring for your children. If you are juggling a busy family and work life and can't be at home 24/7, a companion can provide support.

Designed to ease the burden and allow families to enjoy more quality time together, our services enable you to regain your work/life balance, while your children enjoy before and after school care in the safety and familiarity of their own home. Companion Home Care also provides cleaning, shopping and meal preparation to allow you more time with the family when you return home.

Whether you need a companion every week day, on the weekend or only once or twice a week, we are able to provide a compatible person for your family and circumstance.

Out of School Hours Care

- Morning pick up and drop off to school
- Afternoon pick up from school and return home

Babysitting/Child Care Services

We understand that as a parent trust is the major factor when choosing a sitter for your child. At Companion our team appreciate the importance and responsibility of their roles and we endeavour to match a companion who fits the exact requirements of your child care needs. Whether it's for a night out, a family emergency or work commitments, having your child cared for in your own home by a warm and affable companion will comfort your child and give you peace of mind.

- Hourly or overnight in home sitting
- Group sitting
- Meal, bath and bed preparation

To reduce costs, we also offer the opportunity for like minded families to share the services of a companion for transport, out of school care or babysitting services

Sick Care

When your child is unwell you want to be there, especially if they have to spend time in hospital. At Companion we provide in home care to the siblings of your sick child, so you are able to spend more time at your child's bedside.

Knowing that your children are safe in their own home being cared for by a committed companion helps ease the burden during what is often a difficult time.
